

NEW

Ashworth's Principles of Criminal Law, 10th edition

by Jeremy Horder (London School of Economics and Political Science)

Paperback | 608 pages | Published April 2022

ISBN: 9780192897381

Price: ¥ 8,184 (¥7,440 + 税)

- Goes beyond the traditional format and structure of criminal law textbooks, offering an original and successful blend of doctrinal and theoretical analysis, encouraging students to think beyond issues of policy and theory towards a deeper understanding of the subject
- Concise yet thorough explanation of complicated arguments with a fluent style that engages readers, making the law and its theoretical background accessible
- Refers to a wide variety of useful resources for students, both in the main body of the text and in footnotes and further reading lists, providing students with a definitive research and reference tool
- Also available as an e-book with functionality, navigation features, and links that offer extra learning support

New to this Edition:

- Additional chapters online on bribery and money laundering, public order offences, and communication offences
- Coverage of new case law and legislation, including Broughton (2020), Taj (2018), Richards (2020), Lawrance (2020), Nyonintono (2020), the Sentencing Act 2020, the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2021, and the Domestic Abuse Act 2021

Ashworth's Principles of Criminal Law, now in its tenth edition, takes a distinctive approach to the subject of criminal law, whilst still covering all of the vital topics found on criminal law courses. Uniquely theoretical, it begins with an exploration of the underlying principles and theoretical foundations of the criminal law, giving the reader the necessary context and tools to critically engage with and analyse the law in the later chapters.

This is essential reading for students seeking a sophisticated and critically engaging exploration of the subject.

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Criminal law process | 9. Non-fatal violations of the person |
| 2. Criminal law history | 10. Property offences |
| 3. Criminal law values | 11. Financial crime |
| 4. Criminal law fabric | 12. Complicity |
| 5. Criminal conduct: Actus reus, causation and permissions | 13. Inchoate offences |
| 6. Criminal capacity, mens rea, and fault | 14. Bribery and money laundering (additional chapter) |
| 7. Excusatory defences | 15. Public order offences (additional chapter) |
| 8. Homicide | 16. Communication offences (additional chapter) |

AUTHOR INFORMATION:

Jeremy Horder is Professor of Criminal Law at the LSE. He is the author of numerous works of criminal law scholarship, including Criminal Misconduct in Office (Oxford University Press, 2018), Homicide and the Politics of Law Reform (Oxford University Press, 2012), and Excusing Crime (Oxford University Press, 2007).

REVIEW:

"This continues to be a unique, strong, and well-grounded account of English criminal law... The greatest strength of the book continues to be its first four conceptual chapters, which set the scene and establish the core values, institutions, and processes that give English criminal law its precise shape." - Dr David Hayes, Lecturer, University of Sheffield

ご注文 お問合せは

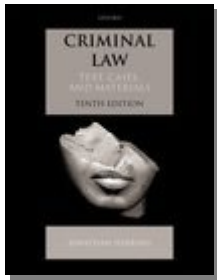

E-mail: support@kokusaishobo.co.jp

TEL: 03-4426-5067

本チラシには 2022 年 5 月時点の価格を掲載しております。為替の変動等により、予告なく価格を変更することがございます。この点あらかじめご了承ください。

Also from Oxford

NEW May 2022

Pbk., 944 pages
ISBN: 9780192855923

税込¥8,800
(¥8,000+税)

Criminal Law: Text, Cases, and Materials, 10th edition (Text, Cases, and Materials Series)

by Jonathan Herring

- A unique two-part approach to covering both doctrinal and theoretical criminal law makes the text appropriate across a wide range of levels and abilities
- The inclusion of extracts from case judgments and critical academic writings deepens students' engagement with the subject
- Further reading suggestions and questions at the end of individual sections allow students to reflect on the content and offer clarity on where to find extra coverage
- The structure is closely tailored to criminal law courses ensuring that the text provides all of the commentary and materials needed to gain a comprehensive understanding of each topic
- Accompanied by extensive online resources, including self-test questions, key case flashcards, guidance on answering selected questions in the book, and an introductory video from the author talking about the study of criminal law and his approach to the subject

New to this Edition:

- New case law, including R v Barton [2020] EWCA Crim 575 on dishonesty; R v Lanning and Camille [2021] EWCA Crim 450 on complicity; R v Lawrance [2020] EWCA Crim 971 on rape; R v Rebelo [2021] EWCA Crim 306 on manslaughter; R v Wood Treatment Ltd [2021] EWCA Crim 618 on corporate crime; and more
- Analysis of the new law on dishonesty
- New material on race and criminal law, highlighting the racial inequalities in how the criminal justice system operates

Forthcoming
June 2022

Pbk., 776 pages
ISBN: 9780192855947

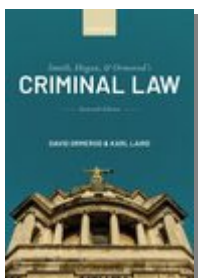

税込¥8,800
(¥8,000+税)

Complete Criminal Law: Text, Cases, and Materials, 8th edition (Complete Series)

by Janet Loveless, Mischa Allen, Caroline Derry

- Clear explanations of the legal concepts that underpin the subject give students a strong base on which to build
- Extracts from cases and primary materials show at first hand the law at work and will deepen understanding
- Thought-provoking thinking points that help develop the ability to analyse and critically evaluate the law
- Review questions and self-testing tools will help consolidate knowledge and give students the confidence to perform well in assessments
- Also available as an e-book with functionality, navigation features, and links that offer extra learning support
- New to this Edition:
 - Additional discussion of the criminal justice process, including sentencing guidelines and Covid-19 regulations
 - Discussion of public order offences
 - Additional commentary on Barton
 - New cases and legislation, including R v Adid [2021], Dawson [2021], Field [2021], Ivor and Others v R [2021], Lanning and Camille [2021], Martins [2021], Muhammed [2021], MS [2021], Thacker and others [2021], and the Domestic Abuse Act 2021

Published July 2021

Pbk., 1,224 pages
ISBN: 9780198849704

税込¥8,800
(¥8,000+税)

Smith, Hogan, and Ormerod's Criminal Law, 16th Edition

by David Ormerod CBE, QC (Hon), Karl Laird

- Regarded as the 'bible' of the subject, this first-class textbook offers a highly authoritative account of criminal law, and is frequently cited in court
- A detailed exposition of the general principles of criminal law, helping students to understand this complex subject
- Discussion of important academic literature is woven into each chapter helping to give a rounded understanding of the subject
- Thorough online updates are provided annually

New to this Edition:

- New features, including a table of contents at the start of every chapter to aid navigation and further reading at the end of every chapter to help students go further
- Now includes coverage of modern slavery and terrorist offences
- Includes all of the latest cases and developments, including Barton on dishonesty, Wallace and Broughton on causation, Lane and Letts on strict liability, Taj on intoxication and self-defence, Cheeseman on self-defence, Foy on diminished responsibility, and Lawrance and Attorney General's Reference (No 1 of 2020) on sexual offences